

Warm

SOPRANO 1

It's warm in here. And if I go out there, then I will feel the air up-on myshould ers...

SOPRANO 2

It's warm in here. And if I go out there, then I will feel the air up-on myshould ers...

ALTO

It's warm in here. And if I go out there, then I will feel the air up-on myshould ers...

8

S.

— So here I'll stay, I'll while an hour a - way, and watch my-self be-come a lit-tle ol - der...

S.

— So here I'll stay, I'll while an hour a - way, and watch my-self be-come a lit-tle ol - der...

A.

— So here I'll stay, I'll while an hour a - way, and watch my-self be-come a lit-tle ol - der...

16

S.

— A slow fall, — a deep sink, — in - to sleep. — That's warm.

S.

— A slow fall, — a deep sink, — in - to sleep. — That's warm.

A.

— A slow fall, — a deep sink, — in - to sleep. — That's warm.

Verse 2:

In turquoise blue
laid out in front of you
The underwater reverie moves slowly
And pout your nose
The bits of wreckage go
Forgotten moughts both wonderous and lowly They fall through the deep sea of this dream

Verse 3:

Of you and me
or the space where I'd like you to be and all the words that are sweeter never spoken spoon you in pull me clothes up to our chins and watch ourselves become a little older a slow fall, a deep sink into love, that's warm.